

BEAUTIFUL LIFE ENDS

Death Comes Suddenly to One of the Most Beloved Women of Our County.

Many were the hearts that were made sad last Thursday morning when it became known that Mrs. Laura White Magowan had died suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Ratliff. Deceased was one of the best known and highly respected women of Montgomery county.

Mrs. Magowan has been residing with her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Samuels, for several years, but had gone to the country home of her daughter for a short visit and while there God's finger touched her and she slept. She had been afflicted with asthma for years but had been feeling especially well for several days prior to her last illness, which lasted but a few hours and while everything that medical attention and loving ministrations could do was done for her, she gradually sank until death relieved her suffering.

Mrs. Magowan had been a devout member of the Christian church since early childhood and her beautiful life and character has been truly a living example of what constitutes a good christian woman and follower of Christ.

Deceased was born in this county in September, 1846, and was the widow of the late Asa Magowan, who preceded her to the grave many years. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Robt. C. Gatewood, Mrs. W. A. Samuels and Mrs. A. B. Ratliff, and one brother, Mr. James B. White. To them the Advocate extends sincere sympathy in their sorrow.

The funeral services were conducted at the residence of Mr. A. B. Ratliff at 2:00 o'clock Friday afternoon with interment in Machpelah cemetery.

ASK WRIT OF PROHIBITION

Lawyers for W. T. Fitzpatrick Want Court of Appeals to Stop Trial Here.

Attorneys for W. T. Fitzpatrick have filed in the Court of Appeals at Frankfort, a petition against Circuit Judge Will A. Young seeking a writ of prohibition to prevent the further trial of the inquiry into Mr. Fitzpatrick's competency, in the Circuit Court.

A writ of prohibition is defined by the Kentucky Civil Code of Practice as an order from a superior court "to an inferior court of limited jurisdiction prohibiting it from proceeding in a matter out of its jurisdiction." Black's Law Dictionary defines it as "A writ issued by a superior court, direct to the judge and parties of a suit in an inferior court, commanding them to cease from the prosecution of the same, upon a suggestion that the cause originally, or some collateral matter arising therein, does not belong to that jurisdiction, but to the cognizance of some other court."

It is contended by his counsel that the trial of the case in the county was a final trial and that no appeal could legally be prosecuted to the Circuit Court.

As soon as the required notice is served upon Judge Young the Court of Appeals will determine the question of jurisdiction. This is the only question, as we understand it, that will be considered by the higher court.

The writ of prohibition is an extraordinary remedy and one that is seldom resorted to and the outcome will be watched with interest here by lawyers and laymen alike.

MUSICAL ENJOYED.

The piano recital given at the High School Auditorium Friday night was attended by a large crowd. The pupils showed careful training and the manner in which they rendered the various numbers was quite a compliment to the ability of their teacher, Miss Minnie Sue Graves.

OPPOSITION TO BECKHAM

Seems to Have Collapsed and Federal Machine Cannot Stop Land Slide.

One of the most significant developments in the trend of political affairs in Kentucky in the last week, has been the almost utter collapse of the opposition to Governor Beckham in his fight for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator.

As the summer advances, interest will increase in the Republican race for the nomination. The interesting fact is that the interest in the Republican party's selection of a candidate begins at the very time that the Democratic nomination becomes a foregone conclusion and therefore decidedly lacking in interest.

The nomination of Governor Beckham is assured by the complete failure of the friends of Governor McCreary to accomplish two necessary strategic moves. The first move was to enlist the "courthouse crowd" in the various counties of the State under the McCreary banner. The second was to use these groups of busy politicians to develop sentiment for McCreary, as the most available candidate in November.

The first move was more or less successful. In many counties, where there appeared to be a popular sentiment for Stanley or Beckham, the county officials with their organization talked learnedly of the defection which would follow the nomination of either of those candidates, and that "good old Mac" was the only man who could unite the party in November.

The second move to bring the popular support around from Stanley and Beckham to McCreary was less easy to accomplish. The Leader stated some weeks ago that the crest of Stanley's popularity was reached at Mt. Sterling. He has made little if any headway since. The work of the organization, therefore, was to win over the Beckham supporters to McCreary. This task, begun in highest confidence, has now practically collapsed and in more than one county the trend has become almost a stampede to the Beckham band wagon.

One of Lexington's most astute politicians said last night to a party of seven local Democrats, that the most disappointed men over the result of the Fayette county primary would be Governor McCreary.

The same Democrat made the statement, which he offered to support by a deposit of cash collateral against successful contradiction, that Beckham would carry not only all the counties in the Seventh district, but seventy out of the 120 counties in the State in the primary. And each of the seven Democrats in the group agreed with him.

It was noticeable yesterday that in talking with local Democrats, all of whom were convinced that the campaign for the nomination was over, Stanley was not seriously considered at all, that McCreary's hopes were dimmed by the insurance mess and extinguished by his ill-advised appointments to the Racing Commission, which are now being regarded as planned less by McCreary to help his candidacy, as forced on the Governor in the interest of the political ambitions of Johnson N. Camden.

In this connection the latest gossip is that Mr. Camden will not be a candidate for Governor, as has been so persistently reported, but that he will remain out of the gubernatorial race, and will be brought out by his friends as fit successor to Senator Ollie M. James in the Senatorial election in 1918.

MR. EWING WEDS

MISS BOTTS

Mr. Josh L. Ewing and Miss Bessie Botts, of Bath county, surprised their friends by being quietly married at the residence of Rev. E. L. Powell, of Louisville, Saturday night.

Mr. Ewing is well known in this county where he has many relatives, and the news of his marriage will be received with interest. He is one of the most prominent farmers and stockmen of Bath county. His bride is a very attractive and lovely young woman, deservedly popular with a large circle of friends. We extend best wishes.

IS WILLING TO RESIGN

Huerta Gives Delegates Permission to Submit Proposition For Him.

General Huerta has authorized the Mexican mediation delegates to submit his resignation in case such a course is found necessary to a settlement in the peace negotiations.

This was stated positively in dispatches from a thoroughly competent diplomatic source in Mexico City, to one of the foreign representatives and confirms intimations given by friends of the delegates.

According to this information from Mexico City, Gen. Huerta at first authorized the delegates to discuss only the question of the Tampico conflict leading to the American occupation of Vera Cruz.

Later the Mexican dictator, it is explained, came to recognize the necessity of a broader settlement and then conveyed to the delegates assurances that he was prepared to step down, should this course be found necessary by them.

The problem causing chief concern to diplomats in Mexico City now is that of the form of administration to be established during the interregnum before a constitutionally elected President could assume office.

No intimations concerning the name of a possible successor to Huerta were contained in the dispatch, this subject being one in which it would be necessary to consult the opinion of constitutionalists and other leaders in Mexico.

MT. STERLING WOM- AN HONORED.

Mrs. Robert Hiner Winn, of this city, was honored last week by being made chairman of the committee to help raise funds for re-building Wellesley College which burned several months ago.

The meeting of the Kentucky Wellesley Club was held at Shelbyville. The chairmanship of this committee entails considerable work and responsibility, but we are confident that Mrs. Winn will prove equal to the task.

CITY CROWDED COURT DAY

Thousands of Visitors Throng the Streets and Horse and Mule Market Fair.

About 1,200 cattle on the market, the quality was only fair, trade a bit slow which is not to be wondered at when prices are considered. Some small steers were weighed at $8.25 and some bunches sold by the head at from 9 to 10 cents. Heifers sold at $7.00 to 7.50. Cows at 5 to 6 1/2 cents. Bulls at 6 1/2. Old cows and rough oxen 4 to 5 cents. Fair sized crowd at the pens and while we had no foreign buyers all of the Central Kentucky counties had purchasers. Most of the stock sold by the head and it was difficult to catch sales. We give a few:

Murphy & Hughes sold 8 700 pound bulls to O. W. Snedegar, of Bath county, at 6 1/2 cents.

Lee Fau'kner sold 21 300 lb. steer calves at $8.25 and 7 600 lb. heifers at $7.40 to Thornton Snelling.

Wm. Treadway sold a yoke of 3,000 lb. oxen to Al Kerns, of Carlisle, at 7 cents. Mr. Kerns bought 25 small steers and heifers at $30. per head and laughingly said they cost 10 cents.

Andrew English, of Bath county, bought 15 about 700 pound steers of Floyd Horton at $60. per head.

Sam Keeton sold 16 about 625 pound steers to Henry Riggs at $55.00 per head.

Sam Lathrum, of Bath county, bought 11 about 550 pound heifers at $40.00 per head.

Sales were brisker in the afternoon and prices held up and in some cases higher as some cattle were sold at $1.00 on the head advance. The pens were pretty well cleaned by night. Cattle sold higher than we have ever seen them on this market.

Some mules on the market and while they sold at good prices they seemed to be a little lower than last court. The horse market had very little life in it for ordinary horses and buyers were few and far between.

WHAT NEWSPAPER

ADS DID
J. H. Payne, secretary and sales manager of the Frazer Brick Company, of Dallas, Texas, has just had an experience which convinces him that newspaper advertising pays. About four months ago his concern decided to put in a plant to manufacture interlocking tile under the Denison patent. A systematic campaign of advertising was immediately begun in the local newspapers. The result was that when the plant was ready for business more orders were on hand than could be filled, and the plant has been operated night and day in an effort to catch up.

"If you have a commodity which people want, and let them know that you have it through newspapers, the rest is easy. I am a convert, and like all converts, an enthusiast. Our experience has made me so," is the way Mr. Payne puts it.

Giving good advice, like virtue, is usually its own reward.

FISH FOR KENTUCKY STREAMS

The Federal Government is to ship 14,000,000 fish into Kentucky for the purpose of restocking depleted streams.

Kentucky has many rivers and creeks and if these were well stocked with fish, and the fish were given proper protection, they would constitute a most important source of food supply.

The streams once abounded in fish. That many of them have been depleted is because of the fact that protection has been lacking.

It is not to be believed that a majority of the people of Kentucky endorse wholesale fish slaughter by means of nets, seines, dynamite and other unsportsmanlike methods. The offenders in this way are comparatively few, but the people as a whole are to blame for permitting such destruction. We have had on the statute books laws which forbade these practices, but up to the time that the State created a fish and game commission there was no systematic effort at enforcement. Local officials were indifferent and the people generally were indifferent.

A great mistake was made in allowing the fish to be indiscriminately slaughtered. The damage that the dynamiters have done in the past cannot be undone. It is possible, however, now that the State has the machinery for upholding the law, to prevent such damage in the future. The law is still being violated, but the offenses are much less numerous than they were before the State commission came into existence and began its campaign for fish protection.

There are more fish in Kentucky streams now than before the advent of the game wardens. No doubt the law will be violated in some localities, but there is more general respect for it and with a continuation of the campaign of enforcement this respect will grow.

We buy and fatten our own cattle and are now slaughtering some extra fine beefs that have been fattened on silage. Try a steak or roast and we know you will come back for more.

PRIOR DUTIES.

Everett P. Dahlgreen, the millionaire opponent of woman suffrage, said at a suffrage debate in Boston:

"I always declare that woman shouldn't enter politics till she's fulfilled all her prior duties."

"Prior Duties! Prior Duties!" So a young lady mocked me one day. What do you mean by these "prior duties" that you're always talking about, Mr. Dahlgreen?"

"So then I told the young lady this story:

"Once upon a time, I began, a little hole was born; and it looked around to see where it should take up its abode. "It first decided on a window, but a man came straightway and put in a new pane. It next chose a chair seat, but the housewife sent for a caner, and in a jiffy a new seat was put in the chair. The hole now selected a baby's rattle, and the baby was so pleased that it began to tear the rattle to pieces, and the poor hole, half crazed with fright, had just time to escape. It threw itself, more dead than alive, into the first thing that came to hand, which happened to be the sock of a suffragist's husband.

"There, at last, the hole seems to have found a real home. Its peace has not been troubled from the beginning, six months ago."

are in satisfactory shape, and each professes belief that he will win. But as long as they both continue in the race there is no chance for either of them to beat Beckham, unless there should come unexpectedly some powerful force of reversion, and there would now be small chance of either winning with the other out of the way.

"Sentiment for Beckham is crystallizing and the supporters of both Stanley and McCreary are feeling it, and deploring it, but they appear powerless to stop it. About two out of every three men one meets will say that Beckham is a certainty to win the nomination, though many at the same time declare they do not intend to vote for him.—John Sherman in Cincinnati Enquirer.

SPIRITUAL HEALING.

A coterie of British physicians and clergymen who have been inquiring into the question of spiritual healing, or "faith cure," has finally decided that there is some efficiency in the treatment even though it apply only to functional disorders. It is significant that the members of this learned body confine their reckoning to "functional disorders." It would have been more than even a charlatan would have cared to shoulder to say that the "faith cure" might affect organic disease. It is a tribute to the shrewdness of the promoters of the spiritual healing tenet that they did not make therapeutic claims.

However opinions may differ on the question of the soundness of the spiritual healing dogma, it is indisputable that there is a class of people, and perhaps a growing class, that gives credence to the teachings of the spiritual apostles. The following extract from the report of the joint committee which investigated the "faith cure" question is illuminating:

"The members of the committee fully recognize that the operations of divine power can be limited only by the divine will, and desire to express their belief in the efficacy of prayer. They reverently believe, however, that divine power is exercised in conformity with and through the operation of natural laws. With advancing knowledge of these laws, increasing benefits are being obtained for mankind through human instrumentality. Especially is this case in the healing of disorders of the body, and they consider that spiritual ministrations should be recognized equally with medical ministrations, as carrying God's blessing to the sick.

"Faith of spiritual healing can be permanently effective only in functional disorders, as distinguished from organic disorders, and the committee warns against resorting to healers and postponing medical treatment.

"Spiritual ministrations may contribute to the success of medical treatment, and we desire to see more importance attached to them, but we strongly deprecate the independent treatment of disease by irresponsible and unqualified persons."

The uppermost thing in the report of the learned committee is the alibi. In fact, all of the specious logic presented in sugar-coated form leads up to this alibi—"The committee warns against resorting to healers and postponing medical treatment."

This is a strangely inconsistent admonition for a cult that exploits the doctrine of divine interposition. It imposes limitations on the Deity. In the terms of its ritual, when the Sovereign Power can go no farther, get a doctor.—Courier Journal.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. ### Proposed for Governor.

The name of Sherman Goodpaster, of Owingsville, present State Inspector and Examiner, this week was added to those under discussion as possible candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor in 1915. Sherman Goodpaster is 34 years old; is a son of C. W. Goodpaster and is a native of Bath county. He is a graduate of Kentucky State University and from 1906 to 1910, inclusive was Attorney for Bath county. He "sized up" so well in that position that when he made it known that he would like the office of State Inspector and Examiner, in which he has achieved an enviable record, he readily found capable backing in Messrs. Allie W. Young and Justus Goebel.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Sherman Goodpaster, State Inspector and Examiner, came down from Frankfort Saturday to attend the races and incidentally look after some business matters here. He has made a splendid record in his exacting office, and he has brought it up to the highest degree of efficiency. There are those who believe that Mr. Goodpaster would make the State an ideal Governor and give it a first-class business administration and they are not keeping it secret but have told him so. He is a protege of Judge Allie W. Young, who is very proud of his achievements and the "classy" young official.—Louisville Times.

While we cannot see where any legitimate objection can be found to a post office primary here, if Senator James and Congressman Fields cannot agree on a man from the list of applicants and are opposed to permitting the people to make the selection, then why not give it to some one of a thousand other good Democrats of the county and thus settle a matter that bids fair to be a hurtful thing for the Democratic party?

Good roads mean better and happier homes; more schools and better schools; a saving to the producer in the cost of transportation of crops to market and a corresponding reduction in the cost of necessities to the consumer. They mean a higher standard of citizenship; they encourage efficiency in all lines of human endeavor and last, but not least, are the cheapest in the long run.

Statistics show that $320,000,000 went last year for soda water and according to Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Bureau, the American people drank 70,000,000 gallons of whiskey, smoked 4,090,300,000 cigars and 8,711,000,000 cigarettes during the six months ending December, 31st. last. Verily we are an intemperant lot!

In a post office primary to win one would have to be the people's choice. "Ay, there's the rub."

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Courtney Horton)

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the "Purple and Old Gold" literary society was held in chapel Friday afternoon May 15th.

Miss Leila Harris our popular mathematic teacher spent the week end with relatives in Richmond.

The local High School baseball team met with two defeats during the past week. On Wednesday afternoon, May 13th, they were downed by the Lexington High School nine, by the score of 7 to 3. Wood for the home boys pitched rings around Reed, who was on the mound for the visitors, but was given bad support, and despite the fact that the locals out hit their opponents, reckless baserunning proved the undoing of the situation.

On Friday afternoon the locals journeyed to Winchester, where they met defeat at the hands of the Winchester High School lads by the score of 5 to 2. Coleman and Wood on the mound for Mt. Sterling were given good support but Owings on the rubber for Winchester, was somewhat of a puzzle and had the situation well in hand throughout the entire game.

On next Friday morning May 22, the High School baseball team will go to Cynthiana, with the hope of capturing a game at the expense of the Harrison county lads. Although there is no denying the fact that the result of the games during the past week was somewhat disastrous, the locals are now extending themselves and will be prepared to put up the battle of their lives at Cynthiana Friday, in order to stave off defeat. Return games will likely be secured with Winchester and Lexington, and it is more than likely there will be a different tale to tell.

Don't forget Edward Saxon at the High School Auditorium Friday evening. Lets get together and show our interest in the Camp Fire work that Miss Mary A. Lockridge has so enthusiastically begun. Admission 25 and 35 cents.

Mr. Stanley A. Harris, a prominent Y. M. C. A. worker, was a visitor at our school Monday, May 18th.

Rev. Clyde Darsie, pastor of the Christian church, addressed the student body in chapel Tuesday morning, May 19th.

BROODER FOR LITTLE CHICKS

Mother Hen Should Be Given Nice
Light Place, Dry and Warm—
Comfort Is Great Thing.

The hen with early chicks is given the poorest chance in the world for caring for her brood. She is generally confined with the little ones for a few days in a coop with bars where they can run out and in. The coop is only a small thing, rather dismal and dark. She is hardly ever given a nice, well lighted place, dry and warm, and with chaff and straw on the floor where the chicks can scratch and work without freezing the life out of them. Some folks will say that the hen is always there to warm them up when they want warmth; but what would you think of an artificial system of brooding that would keep a close little hoover in reach of the chicks all the time, but without any warm place where the chicks might work and eat?

Every year you see the old hens clucking around the place with the little brood with her, crying and cold, and begging the old brooder to stop. In early spring the weather is

The Silkie, Called the "Nurse Maid"
Hen of Japan, on Account of the Way She Mothers the Baby Pheasants—Large Exhibits Were Shown at the Recent Poultry Show in the very unpleasant for chicks. They are miserable in the chilly air and on the damp ground, and don't feel like working and following the old hen.

A hen with chicks should have a little brooder house just the same as if she were an artificial brooder. The room where the chicks might work and scratch ought to be sunny and dry and warm. The old hen's company is not warmth to the chicks when they are out from under her; and they must be out from under her a great deal of the time if they are to make large thrifty birds. A little brooder house or large sunny coop with artificial heat in it will save many of your chicks this spring. Keep in mind that comfort for the chicks is a great thing.

SPADING UP FEEDING PLACES

Practise Tends to Purify Ground and Encourages Exercise on Part of Fowls in Flock.

On most farms feed for the flock is scattered about on the ground, and the chickens are continually fed within a small space. The surface of the ground soon becomes foul with the droppings of the flock. True, sunshine acts as a germicide, and if the space is at all sloping, the washing of the rain helps some, but generally the spot is level and often muddy.

The ground quickly becomes contaminated with the continual tramping of the flock, and if there be one sick fowl the whole flock may soon become infected. This is especially true with small chicks and young turkeys.

The spading up of the feeding place once or twice a week will bring good results. It will tend to purify the ground. It will induce exercise on the part of the flock, which is always desirable. Especially is this true when the flock is confined in yards, and green feed, so necessary, is difficult to obtain.

If grain is scattered as one spades up the ground, much will be buried so deep that hens will not scratch it out and it will be thrown up at the next spading with green, succulent blades that are greatly relished by the flock.

Vermin on Setting Hens.
Setting hens that have a few lice will soon have a great many unless their plumage is filled full of lice-killing powder at least three times during the three weeks that they are setting.

Feed for Setting Hens.
Never give mash food either dry or damp to setting hens, but provide plenty of clean, whole corn, free from mustiness and moldiness.

TO ENFORCE CHILD LABOR LAW.

Strict enforcement of the child labor law, which will go into effect next month, is promised by J. W. Newman, Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics, who is making arrangements for putting the act into operation. In first, second and third class cities children between the ages of 14 and 16 in order to secure a permit to quit school, must be able to read and write and show that they have advanced in arithmetic as far as common fractions; they must present to the school superintendent a certificate of employment signed by their employers, who is required, when the employment ceases, to notify the superintendent. Girls under 18 and boys under 14 are forbidden street employment of the selling and delivery of papers, and boys over 14 may work only between the hours of 6 a. m. and 8 p. m.

SWAT THE FLY

The fly has no day of rest. He's busy all the time, and his mission in life is to spread disease germs. One comes in the window and stops for a moment on the sugar bowl, cream pitcher or the baby's nursing bottle. Do you know where his sticky feet last rested? Think it over and you will soon make up your mind to become an active worker in the anti-fly crusade. The weather is getting warmer; flies are breeding faster; trouble is ahead if you don't.

MT. STERLING BOY WINS RACE

In the track meet between Kentucky State University and the University of Tennessee held at Lexington Saturday, Mitchell Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sullivan, of this city, was the winner in the mile race. Mr. Sullivan ran the distance in 4:45-1-5 breaking the Kentucky record for the distance by 4-5 of a second.

BRADLEY WILL NOT RUN.

Senator W. O. Bradley has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election. "I am totally unable to bear the hardship of a campaign" said the Senators statement.

Many prominent Republicans have been mentioned as probable candidates if Bradley did not run, among them being our fellow townsman Hon. Robt. H. Winn.

HAVE YOUR SWAT- TER READY

Clean up, keep clean and see that your neighbors do likewise and you will have few, if any, flies to contend with. Of course have your swatter ready for the first arrivals. Swat the early flies and save yourself much swatting later. If at first you don't succeed, swat, swat again!

GOLDEN KING HAS BEEN SOLD.

Golden King, pronounced by George Ford Morris, the world's famous animal painter and other competent judges the most perfect living horse has been sold. He was owned by Emerald Chief Stock Farms and although many large offers had been made for him his owners would not part with him until the princely sum of $10,000 was offered for him by the Adirondack Farms, of Glen Falls, N. Y. The leaving of this fine stallion is a loss to Kentucky and especially Montgomery county, and while we have many fine horses left, it is only once in a lifetime a Golden King is produced.

BUYS FINE HORSE.

Mr. E. R. Little, the local horseman, has purchased the fine pacer The Philistine, and has had him shipped to this city where he will be prepared for the races. The Philistine has a record of 2:06 3/4 with a trial of 2:03 3/4 and paced a half in 58 1/2 seconds. He is by the great unbeaten sire Direct Hal, 2:04 1/4, out of the wonderful race mare, Pearl Onward, 2:06 1/2 considered one of the greatest race mares of her day.

The Philistine has a better record than any horse now in Montgomery county.

HOPPER FEEDING THE SAFEST

Saves Time and Avoids Upsetting Digestion of Fowls—Mash Mixtures Used by Breeders.

(By E. K. PARKINSON, Farm Management Expert. Copyright, 1914.)

The two principal objects of hopper feeding are to save time and avoid upsetting the digestion of fowls from careless feeding.

On large commercial plants—in fact, on any farm where poultry are kept in considerable numbers—time is money and must be saved, so by degrees the hopper has come to be used universally. The usual materials are fed in it, but mixed in bulk and put into hoppers dry in sufficient quantities to last several days. There are some who object to hoppers, fearing they attract rats, mice, sparrows, etc., and that fowls eat less freely of dry mash and consequently do not lay as well. The first of these objections is overcome by using metal hoppers with lids. These may be purchased from any poultry supply house. The second objection is true, but the slight loss of eggs is offset by saving in the time spent in feeding.

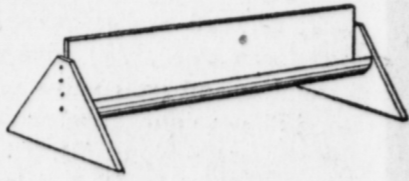

There are, of course, those who have made a great success with poultry feeding cooked mash, and in such cases it is inadvisable to change. But where feeding is done by a hired man, who is apt to be careless in keeping feed troughs clean and well scalded or allowing the mash to stand until sour, upsetting the digestion of entire flocks and causing loss in the egg yield, the change to the hopper method will prove beneficial.

For those who think of changing from the old to the new method perhaps a few of the dry mash mixtures used by successful poultry breeders may prove helpful. A well tried one consists of coarse wheat bran, 200 pounds; cornmeal, 100 pounds; ground oats, 100 pounds; gluten meal, 100 pounds; middlings, 75 pounds; feeding flour, 25 pounds; fine beef scraps, 30 pounds; and fish scraps, 30 pounds. For Leghorns the following has been found good: Cornmeal, 60 pounds; wheat middlings, 60 pounds; wheat bran, 30 pounds; alfalfa meal, 10 pounds; oil meal, 10 pounds; beef scrap, 50 pounds; and table salt 10 pounds. The Maine experiment station recommends wheat bran, 200 pounds; cornmeal, 100 pounds; middlings, 100 pounds; gluten meal, 100 pounds; linseed meal, 100 pounds; and beef scrap, 100 pounds. A breeder of Plymouth Rocks has had good results from the following: Wheat bran, 200 pounds; wheat middlings, 100 pounds; cornmeal, 100 pounds; gluten meal, 100 pounds; and beef scrap, 100 pounds. Every other month 50 pounds of linseed meal are added.

FEED-TROUGH FOR CHICKENS

Efficient Receptacle May Be Constructed Out of Piece of Tin—Keeps Food Wholesome.

A simple and efficient feeding trough may be made by tacking a piece of tin about 3½ inches wide along the edge of a half-inch board so that the tin projects about an inch and a half on either side of the board, bending the tin so as to form a shallow trough, and fastening the board to blocks which raise it from the floor. The trough may be from one to three feet long. It is within easy reach of the chickens and so narrow that they can not stand upon the edges. Food placed in such feeding troughs can be kept clean until wholly consumed.

As one of the difficult problems for the amateur poultryman is to devise some means for feeding little chickens so that they can consume all of the food without soiling it, this trough will prove a great help.

First Feed for Ducklings.

The best first feed for newly hatched ducklings is made of one part sifted cornmeal, one part wheat bran, two parts stale (not moldy) bread and a little fine grit and finely granulated charcoal sprinkled in, the whole mixed damp, but not wet, with milk. Water will do for mixing if milk is not available.

Reduce Feeding Cost.

Early crops for the fowls will reduce the cost of feeding and give the birds succulent food which is essential to egg production. As soon as the winter crops are eaten off have early spring crops ready. Oats, wheat, rye, barley, rape, alfalfa, clover and many other crops are suitable.

Getting Best Results.

Neither an incubator nor hens will bring off the best hatches if set in cold, wet or dark places. A certain amount of light, reasonable warmth and comparative dryness are needed for best results.

THE LEAF TOBACCO SUPPLY

According to the Census Bureau report the supply of unmanufactured leaf tobacco in the hands of dealers and manufacturers on April 1 last is about the same as it was a year ago.

Of the various Kentucky tobaccos the figures indicate the unmanufactured Burley supply is smaller. The showing is the same with regard to Henderson and Green River tobacco. The one-sucker and the Hopkinsville-Clarksville dark leaf are the only varieties of which the supply is larger than it was a year ago. The outlook is more encouraging, therefore, to the Burley growers than it is to the planters in the Black Patch. That, generally speaking, there is no abnormal quantity in the hands of dealers and manufacturers is encouraging to all.

It is not improbable that Kentucky will grow a bumper crop of tobacco this year. Except in a few counties in the stemming district there has been no effort to restrict the output. The prospects seem favorable for a large increase in Burley acreage, and this appears to be justified by the census figures and by the fact that there is little or no unsold Burley tobacco on the farms.

There is nothing in the figures to indicate that consumption is not keeping pretty well up with

FEEBLE OLD PEOPLE

Are Told How to Regain Strength and Vigor.

As one grows old the waste of the system becomes more rapid than repair, the organs act more slowly and less effectively than in youth, the circulation is poor, the blood thin and digestion weak.

Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil is the ideal strengthener and body-builder for old folks, for it contains the very elements needed to rebuild wasting tissues and replace weakness with strength. Vinol also fortifies the system against colds and thus prevents pneumonia.

Mrs. Mary Ivey, of Columbus, Ga., says: "If people only knew the good Vinol does old people, I am sure you would be unable to supply the demand. I never took anything before that did me so much good as Vinol. It is the finest tonic and strength creator I ever used in my life."

If Vinol fails to build up the feeble, old people, and create strength we will return your money.

LACK OF CARE WILL RUIN THE MOST BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Save It With Herpicide

Aside from combing it when they think necessary many people give no attention whatever to their hair. Then when the hair begins to fall out it never occurs to them that their trouble is the result of personal carelessness.

An occasional application of Newbro's Herpicide will not only prevent loss of hair but permits a luxuriant growth. Hair losses are attributable to dandruff and the germ that causes it. The results following the intelligent use of Herpicide are frequently of a surprising nature. It removes the scale-like accumulations, leaving the scalp clean and free of dirt and thus allowing the hair to grow unhampered by dandruff.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold and guaranteed to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

Applications may be obtained at good barber shops.

AS TO IDIOTIC

TAX SYSTEM

"Why, asks the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, 'should the people, as a whole, in their governmental capacity, practice business stupidly of which the most ignorant individual would scarcely be guilty?'"

The Post-Dispatch makes the inquiry in the course of some discussion of Missouri's tax system which, it declares, is "a disgrace to a civilized community" and would be "unworthy of a band of honest savages." The inequalities and injustice of the system are thoroughly known and deeply felt. "Yet the State shows no active disposition to reform them."

What the Post-Dispatch says about Missouri's "crazy-quilt tax system" is entirely applicable to the scheme of assessment and taxation under which Kentucky has been floundering along for many years. Just now the State Board of Equalization is giving its annual, adifying performance at Frankfort. That misnamed body makes a specialty of equalization that does not equalize, but simply adds to the burdens of the honest taxpayer. It makes "a tentative raise" of, say, 8 per cent. on the land values of a certain county. This gives an opportunity for some three, four or half a dozen of the politicians in that county to take a free excursion to Frankfort at the expense of the taxpayers. The delegation appears before the board and enters a solemn protest against the "tentative raise." The board looks wise, makes it 5 per cent. instead of 8, and the delegation goes home to tell the voters "what we done" in the interest of the downtrodden taxpayers.

Can Missouri beat that for monumental foolishness? Or can it point to anything in its entire tax system that is more unjust to the tax-payer who makes an effort to list his property conscientiously, completely and at a fair cash value?

SWAT THE FLY.

Now that the warm weather season is here, "Swat the Fly" should be the slogan of every man, woman and child. With the crusade for cleanliness in our city, let's begin a fly exterminating campaign. Kill this deadly enemy before it kills you, or someone else. A firm in one of our large cities has lately distributed thousands of "swatters" as an advertisement of their goods. It would be well for the city of Mt. Sterling to have made about ten thousand of these gifts with this inspiring hygiene message, "swat that fly or else you die," for too much emphasis can not be placed upon the extermination of this menace to mankind. Begin now, swat in time.

FEEDING AT COMMON TROUGH

Simple Plan of Using Calf Stanchions
Is Best Way to Overcome One Serious Error.

To feed the calves from one common trough is a serious error. The largest and the most greedy calves get more than their share and the smaller and weaker are robbed. The very simple plan of using calf stanchions is the best way of meeting this difficulty. Small rigid stanchions large enough for the calves can be made very easily or bought cheaply, and they will many times pay for themselves. When stanchions are used each calf can be fed separately and thus the amount it seems to need. The slow or weak one gets all it deserves just as well as do the others. If a calf is ill and it is desirable to reduce its feed it can be done nicely when feeding is done in stanchions. Then the use of stanchions overcomes another evil, that of the calves sucking each other as they invariably do when several are fed together and run loose immediately afterward. The habit of sucking is not only injurious at the time, but as in a case observed a short time ago the ill effects may show up later. In that case the owners had raised some fine dairy heifers. Two of them learned to suckle each other when calves. Later when they had become mothers and were in milk they suckled each other whenever the opportunity offered. As a consequence it was necessary to sell one of them.

PLAN FOR HANDLING CALVES

Best Method Is to Keep Youngsters in Separate Stanchions—Will Not Suck Each Other's Ears.

The calves should by all means be kept in clean, well lighted and ventilated stables. Where plenty of barn or shed room is at hand the best method for handling the calves is to keep each one in a separate pen or in stanchions. A pen three feet wide, five feet long and three feet high is large enough to accommodate the calf until it is four to six months old. There are many advantages in keeping the calves separated in this manner. The calves will not suck each other's ears when they get through drinking their milk, which would cause the ears to freeze in cold weather, and they can be given more individual attention. They can be fed as individuals, and a case of scours among calves may be located more readily in this manner and a remedy may be applied at once. Where there is less room to be had the stanchions will usually give the best results.

ADVANTAGES OF DAIRY FARM

Among Other Things It Affords Increased Productivity of Soil and Insures Steady Income.

Professor F. L. Kent, of the Dairy Husbandry Department of the Oregon Agricultural College, states as follows the advantages of dairy farming in the Oregon Dairyman, a monthly magazine published by the students at O. A. C.:

Briefly stated the advantages of dairy farming are: Increasing productivity of the soil, a regular monthly income putting the business on a cash basis, a better distribution of the labor of the farm than is possible under a single-crop system, and supplying a product for the market, all of which should be of the highest grade, and for which there is always a ready sale.

AID IN KEEPING MILK COOL

Flannel Cloth Wrapped Around Can
Is of Value Where Ice Water
Cannot Be Had.

Where ice water cannot be obtained, or where a can of milk has to be left in a place where water and ice cannot be conveniently used, a wet cloth—preferably flannel—wrapped around the can is an aid in keeping milk cool.

One end of the cloth is best left extended from the bottom of the can and immersed in a pail of water. A large amount of the sun's rays falling on the wet cloth is consumed in evaporating moisture and is thus prevented from reaching the milk. As long as the cloth is kept wet it is a protection, but as soon as it becomes dry, heat passes through it to the milk uninterrupted.

MORE QUAIL

The Frankfort State Journal says: "The last 150 pairs of Hungarian partridges purchased by the State Game and Fish Department were set free in Franklin county Monday by Executive Agent J. Q. Ward. Five pairs were placed on the farm of E. H. Taylor, Jr., on the hilltops, just out of Frankfort, back of the Louisville pike where they will range over the Taylor place and the adjoining land of George Berry. Others were set free along the Owen county border on the main Elkhorn, some in Wodford county and some near New Hope, in Nelson county. In every instance the owners of the land agreed to post it for a number of years, and the overseers were appointed game wardens without pay to protect the birds while they breed. The Hungarian Partridge resembles the native variety, but weighs about a pound when it reaches maturity. Mr. Ward received word that sometime this month a carload of pike perch will reach Frankfort. It is expected about eight millions will be contained in the consignment. They will be distributed throughout the length of the Kentucky river. A hundred thousand spawn of the rainbow trout have been purchased by Mr. Ward in Detroit, and will be placed in temporary quarters at the Louisville hatchery.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging
Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave
Up in Despair. Husband
Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good: I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

ELDER J. S. SHOUSE DIES.

Elder John S. Shouse, aged 73 years, one of the best known and most prominent ministers of the Christian Church, died at his home in Lexington at an early hour Thursday morning, following a short illness. Elder Shouse suffered a stroke of paralysis Monday, while on the street in Lexington, and remained in an unconscious condition until his death. Mr. Shouse was converted under the preaching of Dr. L. L. Pinkerton, one of the early intellectual giants of the Church of the Disciples in Kentucky. In young manhood, a convert to the Christian Church, he commenced his long ministry of more than 40 years at Grassy Springs, in Woodford county. Later he conducted a private school at Midway, and after that began preaching for the Christian Church in Midway, continuing as pastor eighteen years, during which time he took keen interest in the Female Orphan School at that place.

Mr. Shouse left Midway thirty-three years ago to take charge of the Broadway Christian Church, in Lexington, succeeding Elder J. W. McGarvey as pastor. Mr. Shouse was pastor of the Broadway church for nine years, during which time he was recognized as one of the ablest ministers in the State. The year after he left the Broadway church he was financial agent of the educational interests of the church of Kentucky, working for Kentucky University, the College of the Bible, Orphan School at Midway, and several other institutions. At the end of that year he went to Columbia, Mo., in which city he preached for about two years. From Columbia Mr. Shouse went to Mexico, Mo., at which place he remained for several years, after which he returned to Lexington, where he remained until his death. Since returning to Lexington, Mr. Shouse had been pastor of Chestnut Street Church, and for several rural churches in Kentucky. Mr. Shouse was married to Miss Anna Armstrong, of Woodford, county. Six children were born to them, three of whom are dead. Three children who survive their father are: Hon. Jouett H. Shouse, of Kinsley, Kansas, a member of the Kansas State Senate; Mrs. Angie Smith, Omaha, Neb., and Wm. Shouse, a cattle breeder in the West. Rev. Shouse filled the pulpit of the Christian church in this city a few Sundays ago. His death is deeply regretted here.

SUNDAY AT WINCHESTER. Billy Sunday, minister of the Christian church, of National fame, will speak at the K. W. College, Winchester, June 2nd. The Lexington ministers recently turned down a proposition to have Sunday come there and hold a meeting. The Lexington ministers considered Sunday's radical way and manners of presenting the Savior to the people as uncomely and divested of permanent good to the cause.

BOY SCOUTS IN PERSIA.

The boarders in the American high school at Teheran come from all corners of the land and it is impracticable for any of them to go home for the summer. For these there has been organized the "Fatherland Camp of Boy Scouts." The camp is located ten miles from the city, in one of the pleasantest villages of the foothills.

The Elborz mountains with their precipitous sides, numerous valleys and deep gorges, furnish an ideal field for long walks, interesting explorations, stiff climbs and flag signalling. The boys wear a uniform made from native cloth, and entered into the enterprise with the right spirit. The forenoons have been devoted to study.

The program provided plenty of work, plenty of play, plenty of exercise, plenty of good wholesome food, and plenty of sleep—their whole time filled up with things that are healthful and pure and good, and the results in character and in health have been good. Boys who had never walked any distance before entering the school have gone off on fifteen mile "hikes" and have enjoyed it. The fee of 50 tomanas for the three months is ample for all expenses.

OPIMUM IN JAVA.

Now that China is succeeding in her attempt to prohibit the production and use of opium, and Great Britain has agreed to relinquish her treaty rights to import opium into China on certain conditions, it is time for Holland to give up her opium monopoly in Java. The yearly profits of the Dutch government on opium, in that dependency, it is said, amounts to seven and a half million dollars. The government buys the crude opium from British India and completes the preparation of the drug in its own opium manufactory in Batavia. The government maintains a depot for the sale of opium in practically all the towns of Java. None but government officials are allowed to sell the drug. No opium is allowed to be imported, and the poppy is not allowed to be cultivated in Java. It would be easy to cause this monopoly to cease. The government would only have to shut up its own "government opium manufactory." There have been some signs of the reformation in this direction.

A SUFFERER FROM RHEUMATISM FOR 25 YEARS TELLS

WHAT THE GREAT ANDES MEDICINES DID FOR HIM

The Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser says:

When anyone has suffered from an ailment for 25 or 30 years the disease has become chronic and in many cases incurable, especially so in Rheumatism, as it is a wellknown fact that there are few medicines that will eliminate uric acid entirely from the system. Ande's great prescription, where properly used and given a good, fair and impartial trial, will positively remove all uric acid from the system by its action on the kidneys.

And where the joints have become stiff or swollen Ande's Oil used externally with the Great Prescription, will cure any case that is curable.

Mr. J. W. H. Jennings, of 502 Columbus street, has been a chronic sufferer from rheumatism for 25 or 30 years. He says: "I

A NEW IDEA.

The young women in Korea use various methods for travel when doing evangelistic work in the country. Occasionally they go in jinrikishas, often on horseback, and oftener they walk, sometimes for miles. Not long ago Miss Mary Myers had rather an amusing experience on a country trip. No jinrikishas nor horse was to be found, and there were seventy li (twenty-three miles) between her and the station where she was to take the afternoon train. The church elder came to her rescue and offered his cow. All arrangements were made. Her boxes (saddlebag style), cots and bedding were placed on the cow, and at 3:30 a. m., perched high on top of the pack, she began the trip in the loveliest moonlight possible. There were two hours in the moonlight, a glorious daybreak, a spark of sun and then snow. Miss Myers says: "Really a cow affords delightful riding, and I am thinking of investing in a cow for itinerating purposes."

CATHOLICS IN THE UNITED STATES.

According to the "Catholic News" the forthcoming Catholic directory for 1914 will show that there are 16,067,985 Roman Catholics in the United States, and that during 1913 there was an increase of 913,827, a little over 5 per cent. This publication will also show that there are 18,568 priests. There were 339 new churches established during the year, and the total number of churches is put at 14,651. In the United States there are 5,493 parochial schools with 1,429,859 pupils. In other institutions of learning there are sufficient students to make a total of 1,669,391 young people who are receiving Catholic instruction. The four states of New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Massachusetts have each more than a million Catholic citizens, and there are twenty-five states which have more than 100,000.

ENGLISH AFTER COAL LAND.

That he intends to take leases on 400,000 acres of coal land in Western and Central Kentucky for an English syndicate, was the statement made by C. N. Coupland, of London, England, who for several days past has been taking options on coal lands in Kentucky. It is believed the syndicate he represents intends to enter into active competition with the Deep Water Coal Company, of Pittsburgh, Pa., which recently took options on coal properties in Western Kentucky. Mr. Coupland says the syndicate he represents is prepared to spend $20,000,000 in the developments of Western Kentucky. He says the coal will be shipped from Evansville, Ind., by river to New Orleans, bound for South American ports.
